

YOUNG ARTIST COMPETITION

May 15, 2016

Greetings from the Brass Band of Columbus! The BBC's Educational Outreach Committee is pleased to announce the sixth Young Artist Competition to be held on Tuesday, June 21, 2016 from 1-5pm in the Huntington Recital Hall at Capital University.

Competition applicants in grades 9-12 on brass and percussion instruments must prepare a Class A Solo from the OMEA required list and be a member-in-good-standing of their high school band program. The competition is in recital format and applicants must provide their own piano accompanist if needed. The competition will be held at the Capital University Conservatory of Music and there is a $20 application fee.

Our competition adjudicators will be Lisa Galvin, Dr. Daniel King, and Dr. Jeffrey Keller, all successful music educators, and charter members of the Brass Band of Columbus. Cash prizes of $500, $250 and $100 will be awarded to the top three contestants. The winner will also be invited to perform with the BBC at an upcoming concert. At the conclusion of the competition, the Brass Band of Columbus will present a free concert at 7:00pm at the Trinity Lutheran Seminary where the competition winners will be announced.

Please feel free to copy the application information and distribute to qualified musicians. Applications including the $20 application fee (payable to the Brass band of Columbus) must be postmarked by June 15, 2016. Please contact Tony Zilincik if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
